November 6 Endorsements

The November 6 general election is only weeks away. Our political action committees interviewed dozens of candidates and the delegates approved the final list on October 9.

We hope you'll consider these candidates when you head the the polls on Election Day.

Your Vote

"When someone says it won't make a difference if they vote, I tell them there are a lot of people who think just like you and all those votes will count."

Check out...and share...the UBC latest Voting Matters video.

We're less than two weeks away from the all important midterm elections. We're getting our message out in preparation for the Nov. 6 general election, making sure that our candidates and issues prevail. If you'd like to volunteer, contact us ... it takes teamwork! volunteer@carpdc.org

Take the Pledge

Want to protect good union jobs, workplace safety and protection from "Right to Work" ? Go to carpenters.org/vote and make a pledge to vote on November 6th.

YES!

I PLEDGE TO VOTE IN THE 2018 ELECTION BECAUSE WHEN WE VOTE, WE ENSURE OUR RIGHT TO:

- ✓ FAIR WAGES
- ✓ ON-THE-JOB SAFETY
- ✓ STOP "RIGHT TO WORK"
- ✓ GOOD UNION JOBS

UNION CARPENTER

Tug of War

The St. Louis County Council ignored County Exec. Steve Stenger this week by overriding his veto of a misguided and potentially dangerous measure aimed at weakening construction training requirements on public projects.

Young Ones

The Bureau of Labor Statistics says nearly half a million younger workers have joined unions in recent years. While real wages have barely budged, the cost of health care and housing have increased. Unions give young people collective bargaining power in the face of financial uncertainty.

BUD Program Boasts 85 Percent Placement Rate

Four years ago, the Carpenters helped lead the charge in the development of the Building Union Diversity (BUD) Program.

Since the program began, almost 150 participants have completed the pre-apprenticeship program and 85 percent of those graduates have been placed into employment with area signatory contractors.

Training

ICRA:

We can't afford to lose. It's that plain and simple.

The St. Louis - Kansas City Carpenters Regional Council has the ability to train its members with a skill no one else has - yet. Our Union is leading the way developing new innovative training and techniques that teach our membership how to reduce contamination while working on expansion and renovation projects in busy hospitals and other healthcare facilities. Become a part of the growing healthcare construction boom. info@carpdc.org.

New ICRA Best Practices in Health Care - 24 Hour Qualification classes have been posted to carpdc through December 2018.
