On the Rise

Missouri is doing something most other states are not: adding union members. Nationally, membership rolls shrank in 2018, but the Show Me State added 25,000 new union brothers and sisters. Combined with the defeat of "Right to Work," it makes the past year a productive one for organized labor.

Workforce

In Ozark country, contractors are working with state officials, school districts and trade associations to combat a lack of skilled workers. More than two-thirds of employers want to expand, but young blood is hard to find. "The average age of construction workers now is in their 40s."

Land of Lincoln

Union-backed JB Pritzker was sworn in last week as Illinois' new governor, replacing the disastrous Bruce Rauner. Earning his labor support, Pritzker quickly named a former union man to head his labor department, issued an executive order on Project Labor Agreements, and signed a law that ties prevailing wage rates in Illinois to collective bargaining agreements.

Survey

Construction is well underway on the new Carpenters Wellness Center on our Hampton campus in St. Louis.

As we plan services and staffing for the Wellness Center, we want to make sure it meets the needs of our members and their families.

Please complete this brief survey with your spouse (if applicable) and consider how you and your family members will use the center:

Short-Term Disability Benefits

Carpenters Health Plan provides a short-term benefit to help members in the active classification who are unable to work during periods of disability. If you have a non-work-related injury or illness and become disabled while covered under the Plan's active classification, you are eligible to take advantage of these benefits.

Members filing for short-term disability have up to one year from the date of accident or injury to file for this benefit.

For more details about eligibility for these benefits, refer to the Schedules of Benefit on the carpdc website. To take advantage of these benefits, contact Tammy at 314.269.5567

There's nothing fishy about taking pride in your work. Check out our carpenters and other tradespeople rocking the "Baby Shark" dance while building the new St. Louis Aquarium at Union Station.
