Do Not Patronize: Club Fitness

Gold's Gym has closed all of its locations in St. Louis. Please be advised, although Gold's Gym has reached an agreement to transfer its members to area Club Fitness locations, we are urging our members to instead join gyms like the YMCA, Planet Fitness or your local community recreation center.

Club Fitness uses Russo Construction exclusively for its facilities, and Russo is not signatory with the St. Louis-Kansas City Carpenters Regional Council. We have had job actions including pickets, banners and handbills at Club Fitness locations around St. Louis, and will continue to do so until they support working families by paying area standard wages and benefits.

Dear Dad

Family is everything. Check out this sweet moment between Local 1181 member Kevin Richardson and his daughter Kara. As school activities around the country are canceled due to the pandemic, Kevin threw an impromptu prom for his daughter at their home. Check out the sweet moment here.

Well Done

UBC members submitted many of the more than 326,000 comments on apprenticeship rules to the Department of Labor -- the most ever received by DOL's Employment and Training Administration. When carpenters act, politicians listen! Click here to see how our member action is protecting union apprenticeships.

Federal Payments

If you are awaiting your CARES Act recovery check, the IRS has launched a new "Get My Payment" web application with features to let taxpayers check on their Economic Impact Payment and update direct deposit information. Check out the IRS website for details.

Outlook

How well will the construction industry weather the current storm? Some experts say early signs point to a quick recovery. "Pent-up demand from construction shutdowns will lead to a construction tsunami beginning in the third quarter, driven by low interest rates and a tremendous amount of liquidity being pumped back into the market."

We've been handing out safety gear to our members, making sure everyone works smart during this health emergency. Here's representative Greg Hefele delivering masks to workers at Richardet Floor Covering on the job in Richmond Heights, Missouri.

It's Not Too Late

We're living a new normal. While this new normal is temporary, the reality is that our new way of life can be isolating if we don't take safe steps to interact with others. Isolation can cause added stress, mentally, physically and financially, especially if you're out of work or have reduced hours.

Did you know walking for a period of time each day can reduce your stress levels and that joining others in a little friendly competition can help you feel less isolated? Join your peers in Carpenters Walk It Off Walking Challenge for a chance to win one of 20 $100 Amazon gift cards! Challenge sign ups start now, with the challenge officially beginning May 4.
